Helge Heinrich advises on national and international transactions in connection with merger law issues, especially on the structuring of joint ventures and drafting of non-compete clauses. His practice also involves advising clients on enforcing claims for damages under antitrust law before German courts and representing them in the defence/enforcement of delivery claims based on antitrust law. Another of his key areas involves developing and implementing competition compliance programmes.

In EU State aid law, he focuses on advising companies and public bodies on regional subsidies in connection with greenfield investments, state guarantees, financing of hospitals to comply with State aid law, financing of SGEI services and infrastructure investments. Together with Dr Alexander Birnstiel and Prof. Marc Bungenberg, Helge is a publisher of the Nomos commentary on EU subsidy law.
